Sri Sai Laksha Archana is the reverent chanting of the sacred names of Lord Sainath for ONE LAKH times. This is done with all the devotees participating together in the chanting and the puja. The puja is done with different items such as flowers, turmeric and vermilion and Akshata. Each item has it's own significance. Puja with flowers indicate that we pray to Lord Sainath to blossom our life like a flower, make it colorful and fragrant. Puja with turmeric (haldi) and vermilion(kumkum) is done for the Sowbhagyam (prosperity) for ladies and yash (fame) for men. Haldi signifies auspiciousness. Kumkum signifies righteousness. Puja is also done with Akshata (rice mixed with sandal powder, vermilion, ghee, kumkum and camphor). Akshata is made of two words – 'A' and 'Kshata'. Kshata is the one which perishes. 'A' – kshata is imperishable. To attain the Imperishable Lord Himself is the significance of doing the puja with Akshata.
